Chapter 1 by Jenna Baker

She was different.

That's all everyone thought of her. She wasn't weird, she wasn't cool; she was different.

Her name was Ghost Ramms, but no one ever cared enough to know that. Ghost was different, that's for sure: She could travel to the Otherworld, a world full of magic and strange creatures.

Chapter 2 by Aaron Hamilton Gold

Ghost attended a pathetic excuse for a boarding school. BrookHills School for Higher Education, ha what a joke. Nothing but a bunch of uptight sissy girls learning to read and write so that they can go home to their daddy and write them a detailed list of what they'd like for Christmas. But beyond the decrepit walls of the school lay the Brookhills Reserve or Fairy Stone River the locals called it, a forest full of wonder and beauty. In the forest, between two large oaks stood the monolithic gates to the Otherworld labyrinth. The only way to get to the Otherworld. All you had to do is go through the labyrinth and only Ghost knew how.

Chapter 3 by ZiggyStardust

All Ghost wanted was to be free; with all the stress and pressure that her parents and Brook Hills School enforced upon her. That is why she went to the Otherworld, to be free, but in the Otherworld, you had to prove yourself to be free, that is why in the Otherworld most creatures were incredibly wild and powerful.

Ghost walked up to the two grand oaks; she had waited the whole day for this; she Brook Hills

Chapter 4 by Andromxda

Ghost sighed in pleasure. Being at Brook Hills was something different for her. And only her. She glanced around her, and when the coast was clear, she scurried down the cellar to begin her travels.

Chapter 5 by Aηηιє ღειgh (GONE...)

Left. Right. Right. Straight. Left_...

Ghost lost count of how many turns she'd made.

But that didn't matter anyway.

She could feel the way; her heart was leading her to the Otherworld.

As she got closer and closer, a warm feeling filled her whole body.

She wanted to be free so badly...

And then, out of nowhere, it appeared: a giant monstrous feline-like animal with long claws, sharp teeth, and red beady eyes.

It growled.

And then it started running in her direction.
